

1. The first bar is orange and represents the first data point.

2. The second bar is orange and represents the second data point.

3. The third bar is orange and represents the third data point.

4. The fourth bar is orange and represents the fourth data point.